

Pray for Rohingya

EXPECTANTLY SOWING

GLOBAL DAY OF PRAYER

OCTOBER 6, 2024

“Peace, peace, to the far and to the near,” says the LORD, “and I will heal him.”

(Isaiah 57:19)

Peace Like A River

The Rohingya people, a Muslim ethnic minority from Myanmar, have endured decades of systemic persecution and violence. Numerous Rohingya were forced to flee their homeland to Bangladesh, where they now reside in overcrowded refugee camps, lacking hope, stability, and facing shortages of basic necessities. Those who have fled to other countries (Malaysia, India, Pakistan, and more) encounter uncertain legal statuses, harsh living conditions, and discrimination. Those who remain in Myanmar are caught in the middle of a violent civil war. The few who are able to be resettled to countries that grant citizenship quickly realize the difficult realities of being immigrants.

The Rohingya are a people who have not known peace for generations. They hope for peace, searching for it in religion or resettlement. Pray with us, that our Rohingya friends would encounter the true God of peace.

Prayer Points

- Pray the Rohingya will know the Lord is near to them, whether they are near or far from their original “home”.
- Pray for physical, emotional, and spiritual healing for Rohingya worldwide.
- Pray that the Good News of God’s love will wash over the Rohingya like a refreshing river.
- Pray that the Rohingya will find peace in Christ even in the midst of turmoil.

Oh Lord—

Thank you for your steadfast love, which transcends all understanding and endures all things. May the knowledge of your kindness refresh and restore the hearts of Rohingya worldwide. Let everlasting peace come to reign in their hearts both now and into eternity. Amen.
